Will Not Sign.

ROBERT HACKETT, colored, is a sound true to the law, and a temperance man who would not drink Tillman's liquor under any consideration. He says he will not sign "a drink of liquor." It would be a reflection on his manhood.

MISS LEMMA COVENS of Mount Carmel, has been elected teacher of the Smithville school for the next scholastic year.

We expect the rich and the powerful to vote for a Convention which has for its avowed purpose the conferring of greater power on the rich and the taking from the poor their dearest rights, but the poor and uneducated white man who votes away his rights has no body to blame but himself. The Convention may be regarded as a blow at the rights of the poor man.

THE CIRCUS IS COMING.

Walter L. Main's Grandest and Best Shows on Earth will Exhibit in this city on Oct. 31st.

On Wednesday, Oct. 31, Abbeville will have within its limits one of the largest and best railroad shows of the present day.

For several days past, Walter L. Main's Grandest and Best Shows on Earth have been with us, exhibiting bill boards, signs, liveries, hotel, etc., and now everything is in readiness for the first advance car, which will be in Abbeville on the 31st of this month.

No other circus in the world has grown like Mr. Main's enterprise, and a week ago when he visited Cleveland, Ohio, for two days, over 40,000 people visited his shows, and the newspapers in long articles pictured out the crowd going to the show ground, the rush for seats, etc. It was the two grandest and biggest days in the circus annals of Cleveland, and will long be remembered. Here is what the Cleveland papers said of Mr. Main's show:

"It was one of the largest and best circuses ever in Cleveland."—Leader.

"The circus is first-class in every particular; a clean, wholesome show."—Plain Dealer.

"One sees no fakirs or grab games going on anywhere near the tents, and hears no loud or noisy wrangling."—News and Herald.

"The menagerie is quite large, and all animals look neat and clean."—Tribune.

"Everything promised was carried out and everybody was happy."—World.

The circus contains almost everything one expects to find in a first-class show."—Press.

The entire show will be in Abbeville on Wednesday, October 31st, and everybody should make arrangements to see the Grandest and Best on Earth. Excursion rates will be given on all railroads, and this will be made a gala day.

EAST END.

All Sorts of Paragraphs About the Old Fort.

Ninety-Six, S. C., Oct. 15, 1894.

Preaching Elder Campbell was in town last Saturday on his way to King's Chapel where he held the quarterly meeting.

We saw one of the prettiest pictures the other day. It was the likeness of one of our young ladies.

Mrs. Anna Lawton is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Col. J. E. Rice, Jr., has gone on a short visit to Aftonville.

Grand Lecturer Bacon, K. of P., delivered an address before the lodge at this place last Thursday night.

Col. W. G. Rice was in town last week on a visit to his daughters, Mrs. Stuart and Mrs. Mackeie. He has almost recovered.

Mr. J. D. Watson, of Greenville, but formerly of Ninety-Six, was in town recently.

Mr. J. R. Leavelle and wife, of Greenwood, have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Calhoun.

A. W. Still has the dearest stock of staple and fancy groceries ever brought to this market.

Master Berrien Brooks, of Edgefield, is attending the Ninety-Six High School.

Mrs. F. A. Townsend, of Edgefield, was in town shopping last week.

Mr. T. C. Stuart, of Greenville, is down looking after his estate. Everybody is always glad to see Mr. Stuart.

Menara, Galpin and Bozeman are packing in bales a large quantity of pea vine hay.

Mr. J. L. Soumele, of Atlanta, is in town. He is being greeted by his many friends.

We heard of two men swapping horses the other day and the difference in the way was two gallons of sorghum.

We hear there are United States warrants out for several white men in the upper part of Edgefield for "white capping."

Miss Agnes Rice, of Saluda, was in town last week visiting friends.

During the recent rains the water was over a good deal of the corn on Saluda river.

Auditor Bradley was down last week looking after the assessment of property in the new Ninety-Six school district. Mr. Bradley is a very efficient officer and has some warm friends in this end of the county.

We believe our people are almost a unit for constitutional convention. The Court House dodge in the new county question won't work worth a cent. When Greenwood wanted a new county they pretended to be our friends and now they know the only chance for Ninety-Six to get a new county is through a constitutional convention which if defeated will defeat us. The Court House people can fool a few people a short time, but they can't fool all the people all the time. It is clear that the people who oppose the convention, their selfishness will prompt them to do it. It will be a case of the Court House clique and the country people, and we advise the country people to send county delegates to the convention, don't trust a Court House man. If you do, you will continue to live 25 and 30 miles from your Court House the rest of your lives. Keep your eyes open and do your own thinking and voting. Every Court House man has, he thinks, a good reason why the old counties should not be divided, but don't let him at him. Vote for a constitutional convention and for county delegates only.

We are having beautiful matter for gathering the crops and one farmers are taking advantage of it.

E. M. Haddon & Co., opening begins tomorrow and continues for 3 days, the ladies are cordially invited.

"Evaporated California peaches" are fine. They make an elegant dish and are cheap. Ask for them at W. Joel Smith & Sons.
